FEDERAL GRANTS
- Federal Grants do not have to be repaid by eligible students who remain in school. You might have to pay back all or part of a Grant if you withdraw from school before finishing an enrollment period (for example, a quarter).
- Not available for those who have received a bachelor’s degree
- Based on financial need

FEDERAL PELL GRANT – full-time, eligible students can receive up to $5,920 per academic year. Eligible part-time students will receive smaller amounts.

FEDERAL SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY GRANT – eligible students typically receive $200-$1,200 each academic year.

STATE GRANTS
- Do not have to be repaid
- Available in eligible states
- Based on financial need

FEDERAL LOANS:
- Not credit-based
- Fixed interest rates
- Repayment begins 6 months after graduation, you leave school, or after your last day of at least halftime enrollment
- Student loans can be costly and default can have serious consequences

FEDERAL DIRECT PARENT LOAN FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS (FEDERAL DIRECT PLUS)
- For parents of dependent students
- Credit-based
- Endorser option
- If approved, PLUS loan can cover total balance after all other financial aid
- If denied, student can receive up to an additional $4,000 in Federal Direct Loans

PAYMENT PLANS
- Monthly and quarterly payment options
- Down payment will be required that is equivalent to your monthly payment as determined by your financial aid officer. This will go toward the overall program cost and will lower future payments.
